CAUSE

On January 16, 2006, January 21, 2006, and January 26, 2006, Mr. Reed submitted urinalysis samples which subsequently tested positive for the presence of cannabis (THC). Mr. Reed's probation supervision is set to expire September 13, 2006. Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

Defendant shall participate in the Home Detention program for a period of four months. During this time, defendant will remain at defendant's place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by defendant's Probation Officer. Defendant will be subject to the standard conditions of Home Detention adopted for use in the Middle District of Florida, which may include the requirement to wear an electronic monitoring device and to follow electronic monitoring procedures specified by the Probation Officer. Further, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of these services not to exceed an amount determined reasonable by the Probation Office based on ability to pay and in conformance with the Probation Office's Sliding Scale for Electronic Monitoring Services.
